

I am completely opposed to the plan to allow Media conglomerate to swallow up more of our television stations. It is frightening to think of having even less chance of hearing all side of issues. Consolidating control of TV stations concentrates more power in the hands of fewer people. How can that possibly benefit the general public? Please vote no to the proposed changes.

Sincerely, Alan Bates